

COSMOPOLITAN

Helen Gurley Brown, Editor-In-Chief International Editions

January 27, 2006

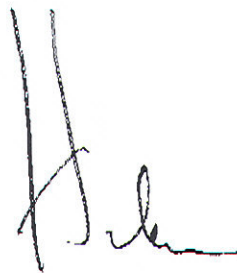

Dear Mr. Saujet,

Thank you for my wonderful bottle of ORIGINAL SANTAL. Magazine editors, as you may know, are frequently gifted with new product so we are a little bit spoiled but - truth! - I haven't smelled anything as wonderful as this new fragrance that I can remember! I have been floating around the halls in my new possession for a day or two and people literally ask - 'Mrs. Brown, what is that...it smells wonderful!' I tell them it is ORIGINAL SANTAL and they can find some at Bergdorf Goodman on Valentine's Day if they want to be "possessed." Thank you so much for letting me be one of the fortunate recipients. Yes, new fragrances make an appearance quite frequently but your "tradition of unyielding standards and uncompromised quality" have created a joyous scent.

With deepest thanks
and all my best wishes,

from = Géraldine

TO = Mr. Emmanuel Saujet
Vice Chairman & CEO
International Cosmetics & Perfumes
CREED
38, Avenue Pierre 1 De Serbie
75008 Paris

HGB:ss